CADILLAC SEDAN

Famous automobiles of the past. Well-known makes still in production and unfamiliar names that are now only a nostalgic memory and have long since vanished from the automotive scene.

Relive bygone days as you fondly recall pleasant memories stirred by the sight of our collection of wonderful old cars. See cars in all price classes — small and large, speedsters, roadsters, coupes and limousines.

Over 50 famous old autos on display in authentic period settings with mannequins appropriately costumed in fashionable clothing of the day.

The makes on display include such great names as Chevrolet, Ford, Stanley, Brooks, Reo, Hudson, Tudhope, Dodge, Whippet, Cutting, Chrysler, Pierce-Arrow and Canada's own McLaughlin-Buick.

Featured as a special attraction are the fabulous automobiles once owned by world famous personalities. Field Marshal Rommel's 1939 Horch Convertible with such features as internal jacking, 5-liter straight eight engine and special transmission. Charles Lindbergh's 1927 Packard Sport Phaeton with special appointments. The Duke of Windsor's 1910 Rolls-Royce Shooting Brake with rare custom body and twin ignition. Mussolini's luxurious 1939 Lancia Astura Limousine with custom body and a host of impressive features. Al Capone's 1928 Cadillac Sedan with armour plate body and fuel tank, bullet-proof glass, self-sealing tires and tubes, drop-away rear window—4 tons of massive stamina and power and capable of very high speeds. This same "mobster's" car was once used to protect President Franklin Roosevelt.
